

Meet with your designer once again and discuss the initial build. Discuss what's working, what still isn't, where the microsite goes from here.

I think the nav bar is a little confusing? It looks like it's popping out from the page on the left. I think it should be fixed at the top. However, in terms of content, I have no complaints. However, I would love to see more of it!

Also, discuss a strategy for technical and design issues that may exist.

The strategy of implementing a popup! Looking forward to it. May need to use Javascript?

How is the page structured?

Each section is its own page.

What is the plan for how the design will function responsively?

it should be navigable with the top nav.

What elements seem to be problematic or difficult?

Reliability (though stylistic it makes sense)

It's hard to tell since it's very early on in the process.
